NEWS OF THE TOWN

The crew that won the old timers' race on last Saturday is to be rewarded with a trophy purchased with funds left over from the amount collected to pay the expenses of the day.

Andy Brown, who has appeared in the police court several times for being drunk, was up again yesterday and was fined $2 and costs. This Andy hasn't anything to do with water.

But one arrest was made yesterday up to 8 o'clock. Antonio, a small Portuguese boy, was locked up for having stolen a pigeon from a Mrs. Tarbell. The little fellow was released on bail furnished by his parents.

Nine natives, a Chinaman and a negro were before Judge Wilcox yesterday charged with gambling. They had been playing Russian war and all pleaded guilty. A fine of $5 and costs was levied on each.

A Portuguese went to the police station yesterday and asked for protection from a woman who he says has threatened his life. Officer Ferreira was sent to interview the lady and warn her that she must do the man no harm.

J. W. Maddra of Baltimore and Miss Frances Godfrey were united in marriage Tuesday evening at St. Andrew's cathedral. Rev. Kitcat performed the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Honolulu for the time being.

Rev. Kameda, a Japanese preacher who has done work in Japan, Formosa and America, will speak in Japanese before the Christian Endeavor Society of Kawaiahao church at that place at 6:30 o'clock Sunday evening. Jas. Hakuole will translate his remarks into Hawaiian.

A Cowan appeared in the police court yesterday morning to answer to a charge of embezzlement brought against him by Clarence Macfarlane, in whose employ he has been. On motion of his attorney the case was postponed until tomorrow.

Antonio Mello who was arrested on a warrant sworn to by his wife, was before Judge Wilcox yesterday to answer the charge of desertion. He was ordered by the judge to return to his wife and if he should desert her again he was threatened with the reef.

Lam Sai, one of the most prominent Bow Wongs in Honolulu, will leave for Japan in the Nippon Maru, he having been chosen a delegate to the big meeting of the Bow Wongs in Japan next month. Representatives of the society from all over the world will be present. Mr. Lam Sai will take his family with him.

The coroner's jury to inquire into the death of Kupahli, who was struck by the train on Wednesday last met last evening and after hearing the evidence of several witnesses rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death by being struck by a train through his own carelessness.

Will Reload Government Horses.

The three hundred head of horses which arrived on the transport Federico and were afterwards unloaded and taken to the government corral, near the Oahu prison, for exercise and a rest from the long sea voyage to the Philippines, will again be taken aboard the ship tomorrow, and it is expected that the journey to the far east will be resumed Saturday. The horses are in the best of condition after their respite on land, and they have been receiving extra rations because of the hard trip yet before them. A large number of attendants accompany the transport, and while at the corral the animals have been given a daily gallop about the city. There are about one hundred and thirty head of mules at the Iwilei corral also that have been given similar treatment.

He Owes His Life to the Forethought of a Companion.

While on a camping trip in Webster county, Mr. S. I. Stump of Norman-town, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says: "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained while on board the cars or steamship and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents Territory of Hawaii.
